

RQT Programme 2020-21

Programme Overview:

A 5 day programme to develop reflective teachers who are at the start of their teaching career (1-3 Years). There will be opportunity throughout the course to address any on-going questions and reflect on current practice.

What does the programme involve?

Day 1: Leading Learning this year

Tuesday 29th September 2020 (8.30am-12.00pm)

- What are you hoping to develop this year?
- NQT Final Assessment / Staff Appraisal targets > what are your next steps?
- Managing the year ahead
- Relationship with others

Day 2: Everybody Counts

Thursday 26th November 2020 (9.30am - 3.00pm)

- Meeting all needs, catering for everyone in your classroom
- The learning environment
- SEND
- EAL
- Teaching at greater depth

Day 3: Data, its implications and recognising impact

Tuesday 19th January 2021 (8.30am - 12.00pm)

- Narrowing the gaps
- Interventions
- School data
- External data
- Statutory assessment

Day 4: Halfway through the year - time to take stock

Thursday 25th February 2021 (9.30am - 3.00pm)

- An opportunity to reflect on practice this year
- A needs-led session
- Sharing practice
- Facilitated visit

Day 5: 'Forging' Ahead - 'What's next for you?'

Tuesday 22nd June 2021 (8.30am – 12.00pm)

- Where do you want to go next in 'your career'?
- CPD Leadership / Subject Leadership

Cost of the programme:

£350 (ConnectEd Member Schools)

£400 (Non-member schools)

Venue: Please note that due to Covid-19 it may be necessary to provide e-sessions and on-line group meetings. You will be fully informed about all arrangements for delivery

This programme is suitable for all primary teachers who are at the start of their career.

For more information, Contact Harinder.jandu@connectedpartnership.com or call 01902 290152

Book here: <https://bookwhen.com/connected/e/ev-svps-20200929083000>