The Role of the Designated Safeguarding Lead in Education

Programme Overview

This 2 day course is aimed at the DSLs and their Deputies, it is vital for those new to the role and helpful for those who would like a refresher, particularly in light of all the recent updates and changes in guidance.

DSLs and their deputies do not have to attend this training but it helps to contextualise the role in a school.

During the course candidates will learn about:

- The role and main responsibilities of the designated safeguarding lead
- Understanding abuse and its impact
- Values regarding child abuse and the impact of these on professional practice
- Key legislation and guidance that determines your organisation's policy for child safety and welfare
- Running a safe organisation, and look at what steps your organisation needs to take to look after the safety and welfare of the children and young people it comes into contact with
- Predatory and grooming behaviours
- The barriers that prevent children from reporting abuse
- How to respond effectively to a child who does report abuse
- The barriers that prevent staff from reporting concerns, and how to overcome them
- The right decisions about what steps to take when concerns about a child have been raised
- What is likely to happen following a referral to children's social care and what role the school or college has in the multi-agency child protection process, including case conferences
- The issues connected to recording and sharing information, including confidentiality
